Invitation to Lizzie's Grandfather

Eben Wilson

The body of Eben Wilson will be at the L. V. Barker Funeral Home, 12581 Woodward Ave., until noon Wednesday, when it will be taken to the Highland Park Masonic Temple, E. Buena Vista Ave., where funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Burial will be in Woodmere Cemetery, under auspices of the Highland Park Lodge No. 468, F. & A. M.

Mr. Wilson died Monday at his home, 244 Geneva Ave., Highland Park, after an illness of two years. He was born in Whittaker, Mich., in 1877 and had lived in Highland Park for the past 28 years, being employed during that time as a stock checker for the Ford Motor Co. Prior to that he was postmaster of the community now known as Oakwood.

Mr. Wilson was a member of the Highland Park Lodge No. 468, F. & A. M.; Highland Park Chapter of the Royal Arch Masons; Park Corinthian Chapter No. 401, Order of the Eastern Star; White Shrine of Jerusalem No. 25, and the Trinity Methodist Church, of Highland Park.

He is survived by his wife, Lizzie; two daughters, Emily and Luella; two sons, Howard, of Cleveland, and Lester; his father, Thomas Wilson, of New Boston, Mich.; a sister, Mrs. Lavina Krebs, of Ypsilanti, and three brothers, James, of Detroit, John, of New Boston, and William T., of Port Huron.

The Lord is my shepherd. I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

David W. Harrison

June 16, 1984
November 6, 2003

God grant that I may live to fish
Until my dying day;
And when it comes to my last cast
I then most humbly pray:
When in the Lord's safe landing net,
I'm peacefully asleep,
That in His mercy, I'll be judged
As good enough to keep.

Dear Dr. Donohue: I would like to know if you could tell me about amyloidosis. Is there a cure?

Dear Reader: Amyloidosis is a group of illnesses that have in common the infiltration of tissues and organs with a peculiar protein, amyloid. Symptoms depend on what tissues and what organs are its targets. Amyloid in the heart can foster abnormal heartbeats and can produce heart failure. Kidney involvement can progress to kidney failure. When amyloid penetrates the digestive tract, weight loss and diarrhea indicate the person cannot absorb food.

Amyloidosis causes are obscure. It can sometimes be associated with another illness. Multiple myeloma, a bone marrow cancer, often leads to amyloidosis. In some families, it appears to be a genetic disease. The largest group of patients are those for whom no cause can be found.

Treatment has two goals: Restore function of involved organs and halt progression of amyloid production. Dialysis, for example, treats those whose kidneys have failed.

Turning off amyloid production, however, is a difficult feat. Chemotherapy drugs are used. For one of the family forms of amyloidosis, colchicine — a gout drug — can sometimes dampen amyloid production.

At a few medical centers, melphalan, a chemotherapy drug, is administered in high doses to wipe out the bone marrow and the bone marrow cells involved in amyloid production. Stem cells, primitive blood cells that can rejuvenate bone marrow, are infused into the patient. The stem cells have been collected from the patient before doctors give the high dose of melphalan.

The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his names sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over:
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever:

Emily Woodford

CLEVELAND — The death of Emily Woodford, 52, Port Clinton, O., sister of Mrs. Luella Bowers, 347 W. Oak St., Butler, came as a blow to the family and to the physicians who thought they had accomplished a break-through in treatment of leukemia.

Mrs. Woodford had leukemia for about a year and was the only adult known to have responded to medication, which was administered by Dr. Salk, son of Dr. Jonas Salk, discoverer of polio vaccine.

She was treated at Western Reserve University Hospital in Cleveland and was hospitalized there off and on for the duration of her illness.

She was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ebon Wilson on Sept. 11, 1918. She married Henry Woodford Jr. in Shreveport, La., July 4, 1940.

Surviving in addition to the husband and sister are a son, James, at home; a daughter, Lynn Ann, an exchange student in Paris; and two brothers, Lester Wilson, Detroit, Mich., and Howard Wilson, Akron, O.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Port Clinton Trinity Methodist Church, where she was a member. Burial will be Monday in White Chapel Cemetery, Detroit, Mich.

The body is at the Gerner and Wolfe Funeral Home, Port Clinton.

Robert suffered with Congestive Heart Failure for several years. In May, 1983 he had Heart Surgery, six bi-passes, and 3 days later a Pace-Maker was placed. July 1995, a new one was put in.

He was treated for Rheumotoid Arthritis since the early '70's. The last month of his life, specialists determined he did not have Rheumotoid, thru blood tests and his hands were so able to do the finest of things. Repair and restore old clocks was a joy to him. He had the knowledge and patience to get them just perfect. There is a clock etched on our monument in the cemetery.

We were married 58 years, the December before he passed away. How sad life is without Bob. He was my companion every since we met, July 11, 1936. His love and kindness shall be remembered.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson on Wednesday evening, when their only daughter, Vina, was united in marriage to Edward Krebs. No one but the members of each family were present and Miss Grace Smith of Wayne, who acted as bridesmaid. The bride was beautifully gowned and carried pink and white carnations. A beutiful wedding supper was served after which the bride and groom left immediately for Detroit, en route for a trip through the eastern states, visiting Niagara Falls and Buffalo, etc. Rev. H. R. Beatty of Romulus officiated. Both bride and groom are well known in social circles of this place. She has been for seven years engaged in teaching in the public schools of Wayne county.

Twenty-third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters . . .

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake . .

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me: Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over . .

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Obituaries

Joseph Bower; built Ambassador Bridge

Joseph A. Bower, who built the Ambassador Bridge between Detroit and Windsor, died yesterday at the age of 96 in his Palm Beach, Fla., home.

Private funeral services and burial were to be held today in Palm Beach.

Mr. Bower, son of a gold and silver prospector, was born in a tent on the north slope of Pikes Peak, Colo. In 1881, he moved with his parents to Detroit where he lived until 1916.

He attended the Detroit Business University where he studied accounting. After graduation, he studied law.

He was working for the Detroit Trust Co. in 1916 when he was asked by New York bankers to become president of the financially ailing Hale, Kilbourn Co. of Philadelphia. While with the firm, he negotiated a contract with the United States government to design and build the first U.S. bomb to be dropped from an airplane.

JOSEPH BOWER

In 1917, he became vice president of Liberty National Bank of New York and it was while in New York that he thought about building a bridge across the Detroit River.

Bower organized the International Bridge Corp., took over options of previous bridge planners, raised the necessary capital, hired the engineers and built the bridge.

The whole project, from conception to completion in 1929, took five years and cost $23.5 million — all private capital.

When it was finished, Mr. Bower owned all the common stock of the bridge corporation, now called the Detroit International Bridge Co. He and his family remained major stockholders in the firm and Mr. Bower was honorary board chairman until his death.

After the bridge was built, Mr. Bower proposed that an elevated $100-million "auto speedway" be erected over the Grand Trunk Western Railroad tracks from Detroit to Pontiac, an apparent forerunner of today's expressway system, but the proposal died in the Depression.

Mr. Bower later became a director of the Chemical Bank and Trust Co. of New York City and president of its Chemical Securities Corp. He retired in 1945.

He told a Detroit News reporter three years ago that he had proposed to city officials that a great mall for the downtown area with vast underground parking facilities should be built downtown. Stores and shops within the mall would have underground entrances so that shoppers could enter stores from the parking garages.

Mr. Bower also proposed that a monorail be built in Detroit using air rights over the city's freeway system to bring people who prefer public transportation to the downtown area.

An active Republican, Mr. Bower was past chairman of the New Jersey Republican Finance Committee during the mid-1940's.

He is survived by two sons, Robert A. of Pauma Valley, Calif., and Joseph W. of Southbury, Conn., and a daughter, Mrs. Arthur H. Lamborn of Greenwich, Conn.

FORMER DETROITER WHO ANNOUNCES BRIDGE DEAL

JOSEPH A. BOWER.

My father, Eben Wilson, treasured this picture of his former room mate, (Gus). Joseph A. Bower. I remember the day the bridge was dedicated and opened my mother and father and sister, Emily and I were there. We walked onto the bridge as far as we could, there were so many thousands of people, all crushing together, my mother became frantic that "the girls will be smothered". We then went to the building where Gus and all the officials were, but Dad was too timid to make himself known, and after standing outside for some time, hoping to see Gus, we finally left. Now I realize how disappointed he must have been. He was so proud to have know Gus Bower, and he did not ever see him after that.

IMPORTANT EVENTS

When six weeks old my family moved to a small town, Whitaker, Michigan. After two years they moved back to Highland Park, to 244 Geneva Ave., which is still my Mother's home (1956). In April, 1944, my husband and son and I moved to Butler, Indiana, where we had bought a home. This is still our residence.

I am particularily interested in my family, both history and possessions. I treasure whatever I can have that has belonged to any of my relations. I am very proud to own a large family Bible that was bought by my father's father. In this Bible were papers on which my father carefully wrote names and dates of his Mother's and Father's family. I have made a hobby of scrap books, for my husband and myself, and our two sons, Another possession I treasure is a baby book my Mother made for me. Books in general are of a real interest to me. When in the 6th and 7th grades, I was appointed Student Librarian by Mrs. Ethel Alden, Librarian of Liberty School ~~Library~~.

I went to Washington D.C.and Norfolk, Virginia, and Williamsburg, with the graduation class of Highland Park High School, 1938. In 1941, I visited my sister and other relations in Longview, Texas. With my family we have had short vacations; once to the Smokies, twice to Gettysburg, and Washington D.C., and twice to Northern Michigan,the Great Lakes. This past year we went to the Ozarks, Texas and The Gulf of Mexico. New Orleans was the most interesting to us on this last trip.

While living in Detroit, I spent some time in the Genealogical Dept. of the Detroit Library, looking for a line of the Hardy Family. The information I had with me was copied and placed in the Burton Historical Collection, Detroit Public Library, September 3, 1943.

In the Spring of this year, I sent forms to all my aunts and uncles on both sides of my family, requesting dates, and other information of all their children, in hopes that I can prepare a "Family History" and keep it up to date. The response was thrilling, everyone cooperated whole-heartedly. Mrs. Helen Hardy, Dayton, Ohio, wife of Russell Hardy, my Mother's brother, has spent hours working on the Hardy Family and has written many of her finding to Lucy Hardy, who in turn kept these letters and has now given them to me.

FAMILY HISTORY

WILSON Family History as told by Thomas Wilson, and transcribed by Charlotte Docherty Wilson, in approximately 1930.

James Wilson, born in Magharalley, Ireland, March 27, 1817.

Occupation: Weaver, Died August 15, 1851.

Mary Jane Wilson, his wife, born in Ireland, July 21, 1818.

Maiden name - Cully. Occupation: Housewife Moderate circumstances, both members of Methodist and Episcopal Church. Died November 19, 1861

Their Children:

John Wilson, born in Ireland, December 25, 1839, Occupation: Weaver. When a young man of about 25 , he came to the United States to his grandparents, Robert Cully, living near West Avon, New York. He lived in New York three or four years and then came to White Lake, Michigan, where he purchased a farm, and married a woman whose maiden name was Badie.

There were three children, Matie, Libby, and Lena, born to John Wilson and his first wife. After the death of his first wife he married again. His second wife's name was Lottie Wright, before she married him, but she had been married before and had a son whose name was Dalla. John Wilson had two children by his second wife, John and Hattie.

After coming to the United States, John Wilson's occupation was farming.

Robert Wilson, born in Ireland, November 8, 1841, Occupation: Baker

When he was a young man he came to the United States and started up a bakery somewhere in New Jersey. Robert Wilson married, but it is not know to whom, or whether or not there were any children. He made a fortune in the candy business by making a stick of hard candy that was about two inches across, in colors of red and white, that had a sentence written through the middle of it, and regardless of where the stick was broken the whoe sentence would still be on the surface. Shortly after he made his fortune, while he was still a middle aged man , he died. He was buried somewhere in New Jersey.

William Wilson, born in Ireland, December 4, 1843. Occupation: Farmer. When he was a young man he came to the United States and immediately enlisted in the American Army. He was in the Civil War. After the Civil War he went to California in search of gold, and while there he sent back to his father and mother a 25¢ gold piece and a dollar gold piece. He didn't live in California long, but he was never heard from after leaving California.

He was a very good musician, and made good money playing the fife and drums at different Protestant Lodges in Ireland - The Free Masons and Orangeman.

Thomas Wilson: born in Ireland, May 12, 1846, in County Down, between Belfast and Dublin. Occupation: Weaver. When he was a young boy he wound bobbins for the weavers of linen and later he became a weaver himself.

His favorite past time when he was a boy was playing marbles with the other boys in his neighborhood. He was allowed to stay out until 10:00 o'clock, at night, at which hour the mail coach arrived that ran between Dublin and Belfast. At night it was due to pass on the Broadway at 10:00 o'clock. Although the mail coach started at a point several miles away, he was able to hear the sound of the horses feet galloping over the road at that distance due to his invention of an instrument fashioned out of a stick which was sharpened at one end, and with his ear at the other end of the stick, and the sharp end of the stick in the ground he was able to hear the coach coming toward the town. He believes that he could have made a fortune with this invention.

He learned to play the fife, but didn't play so very much. He remembers attending dances given by the "Charity Singers" - a charity organization. All the girls at the dance were put up at auction, and the girl had the privilege of picking out the young man she wished to spend the evening with. The money collected at these dances was given to aid the poor people.

His father held office in the Free Mason Lodge for a great many years. On the 12th of July, in Ireland it was the custom then, for the Free Mason Lodge to celebrate. They had two songs they were not allowed to sing or play on this Holiday. Robert Wilson, his brother whom the lodge had hired to play for them, and himself (Thomas Wilson) went to the meeting, and the Orangemen met and they had a picnic and dance.

When they started for home Catholics were concealed in a barn with pitchforks and scythes, and they rushed out to stop the Protestants. The Master of the Lodge ordered them to play the Protestant song against the Catholic Lodge, and there was a riot. Every man had a gun in the lodge, and all the boys, including Thomas Wilson, carried ammunition to the men from the town, which was about a mile away. They finally forced the Catholics back. He attended school for two years, after which time he was only able to attend one day a week, because he couldn't be spared from home. When he was seventeen or eighteen he left Ireland and came to the United States to live. The ocean trip to the United States was a long and hazaradous one. It took six weeks and three days to complete the trip from Liverpool to New York. This long delay was due to the ship becoming stuck in the icebergs off the coast of Newfoundland. At times the ship was wedged in so solidly that the passengers would step off the boat on to the iceberg and walk around for some distance.

There was great fear among the passengers that they would never complete the trip. They had on board the ship a bottle of Holy Water which they sprinkled over everyone, and everybody went about the ship praying that they would be saved. There was near mutiny amoung the sailors, and the Captain came out dressed only in his night shirt, and with a gun in each hand commanded his men to carry on.

He landed in New York in the spring of 1863. His fare from Liverpool to New York was #30.00 in United States money. When he landed he went direct to his Grandparents, Robert Cully. He hired out to a farmer at West Avon for $11.00 a month. He worked there for some time and then he started driving a coach for a hotel keeper, from the station to the hotel. He remembers that there was a Professor who came from New York, by the name of Thompson, who taught nothing but writing. This Professor held school two nights a week, and Thomas Wilson attended that for two or three years. Once when the Professor was riding with him, the horses shied at a covered threshing machine and ran away, throwing both the driver and the Professor out of the coach - upsetting a box of tea into the Professor's hat and scrattering his groceries all over the road.

From West Avon he came to Novi, Michigan. Here he worked on farms in the summer, and in the winter he worked in the north woods in lumber camps. He met his wife, Eunice Heath, in New Hudson. After they were married he bought a farm on shares and lived on that farm for about four years. From there he went to Whittaker's Corners (Willis) Here he bought 80 acres of land for $350.00, on which he agreed to build a house and live there. He cleared away the trees and brush and built his home, where he lived for nine years. This 80 acre farm was covered with valuable timber which he sold to the Wabash and Michigan Central Railroads for railroad ties. He sold them 121 trees as they stood for $121.00. He also sold the railfoad companies cords of wood for fuel for their engines.

The woods around his home abounded in wild game of every kind. Wild turkeys were plentiful, and one day his neighbor came over to tell him that there were five deer in his barnyard.

After nine years on this farm he sold it for $1,750.00 and bought himself another farm in New Boston of 94 acres. He lived on this farm for 37 years.
